Amanda Oosthuizen is a prize-winning writer and the composer of the Let's Play series of tutors. She is a highly experienced woodwind teacher and lives with her family in the UK. Jemima Oosthuizen is a freelance bassoonist and a graduate of the Royal Academy of Music.

This looks good and pretty simple as long as you can read music (and know the proper fingering for your recorder). It is not for rank beginners, but these are easy arrangements if you have some basic music skills. Lot of good songs for Christmas!

Great for early players. Interesting and fun arrangements.

Excellent harmony written between the two lines they switch between the soprano recorder being lead to the Alto recorder taking lead throughout the song.

For intermediate players.

too simplistic

fun, good arrangements of the Christmas songs. Can not really use for solos like some duet books that have a straight melody on top part and harmony on the bottom. The two parts interchange back and forth between melody and harmony, which is fun, but need another person to play along with. Must read music.
