Bratislava (Bradt City Guides)

Synopsis

This new edition of the Bradt guide to Bratislava by expert author Lucy Mallows remains the most authoritative and reliable guide available to the city that combines history with hedonism like no other. Bradt's Bratislava is by far the most comprehensive and entertaining guide on the market in any language. Maps, walking tours, historical perspectives and hotels, restaurants, cafes and pubs are all covered. In addition, it features detailed information on shopping, sports, gardens and parks that you'll find in no other book. Not only does it include out-of-town ideas, but it goes into greater depth than other guides and is written in an engaging and colourful style that sets out very deliberately to entertain as well as inform. This third edition is thoroughly updated to include the vast number of new boutique hotels, restaurants, bars and cafés. It also offers a useful transport map and guidance on city transport and an updated event calendar. Straying out of the city itself, it also covers Košice, 2013 European City of Culture.

Customer Reviews

Mallows brought with her a defined sense of the historical and cultural context of all the places she wrote about. (The Oldie) If there is one word, which characterises this guide to Transylvania it has to be 'enthusiasm'. Lucy Mallows' passion for the place shines through the pages of her guide, generating interest and curiosity on the part of the reader. (The Budapest Times) An appealing, highly readable companion to this beguiling city, and a refreshing contrast to the usual 'cram-it-all-in' digest of urban highlights. A civilised guide to a civilised place. (Dan Linstead Wanderlust) Makes you want to pack your bags and go to discover what this long-neglected city has to offer. (The Budapest Sun)

Lucy Mallows is a freelance photojournalist, editor and translator. She writes regularly for national newspapers and magazines and translates professionally from Hungarian to English. She first visited Bratislava in the then Czechoslovakia in 1982, when studying Russian and Czech at Leeds University. Lucy speaks six foreign languages, including Slovak, and returns frequently to Slovakia, when not cleaning beaches and campaigning for marine conservation from her home in Newhaven.
