Since moving to Texas over 20 years ago, she has acquired friends across the country through her extensive travels and her charitable volunteer work. She has a passion for dancing, seafood and her family, most of which still live in Florida. You can visit her at www.shirleyrenee.com.

Excellent book for those with someone close to a person with Sickle Cell Disease to see the many struggles SCD individuals go through.

Warriors in the Sickle Cell Community need more voices like Shirley Renee. Thank you for sharing part of your experience with this world. I recommend this book to those looking to be inspired.
