You Are A Miracle: Waiting To Happen

Synopsis

You are a Miracle is jam-packed with practical aids and insights on how you can become a miracle in the lives of other people. Rather than waiting around for your own miracle to happen, you will discover the real joy of Christian living—making miracle happen in the lives of others. In this book you'll learn: Three miracle-working questions that release the power of God. Seven signs of a miracle waiting to happen. Three skills of love that empower you to impact people with Jesus. Five levels of communication. Seven ways people experience pain and how to meet their needs. Skills for making lifelong friends. Plus much more! There are miracles all around you waiting to happen—broken lives desperate for your love and support. You Are a Miracle will give you the vision to see those miracles and the spiritual tools to make someone's miracle become a reality.

Jam-packed with practical aids and insights, this book will teach you how you can minister to people in your own church on Sunday morning! Learn three miracle-working questions that release the power of God; seven signs of a miracle waiting to happen; three skills of love that empower you to impact people with Jesus; and much more!

Some of the thoughts and practices mentioned would make many feel uncomfortable. If a person had hardly been to church and were approached by a well meaning person wanting to pray with them, etc..., it would probably make them feel uneasy. There is an assumption that everyone is familiar with church which is not the case. There are some good ideas but a care team member would do better just being genuinely friendly and welcoming to any guest that comes in the doors of the church.

This is what I expected with practical applications to back up the philosophy

Great book for Church identification and Growth ideas. Should be required reading for all workers/leaders in the Church!

I really enjoyed reading the book, but even more found out that care ministry really does work in practice. Ken Houts gives many very practical hints and tips, of how to make care ministry work in your church. Talking about love is one thing, but showing it to the guests who visit your church is another matter, or not?? Read the book. Experience the challenge and see your church grow. Why? Because being a Christian is not aimed at looking at yourself and your Christian friends. God brings in the harvest. Who are we to neglect them? Read it. Do it. Enjoy it.

Ken Houts does a nice job of letting us know why 'visitors' to our church often don't return. Because we treat them as just that, 'visitors'. Instead, Houts suggests a change in terminology to 'first-time attendees'. But there is more than just semantics at work here. He does a nice job of telling us the mind-set of the first-time attendee, and how they make up their mind in the first 11 minutes if they will return or not. In those key 11 minutes, your church body has an opportunity to be the 'miracle' that the title suggests. It is a solid read and highly recommended for any member who feels as though their church could do a better job of growing its body and leading people to Christ.

Wrestles with an important issue: connecting with people who test out a church, ensuring that they are, or can become spiritually on track, and helping to assimilate them into that church. This program is perhaps a good place to start, though I would imagine that most situations would require substantial adaptation rather than actually implementing this as presented. Stylistically, the multiple numbered lists nested within numbered lists was confusing and distracting.

This book is a source of encouragement and well worth the read if you really want your church to grow. It is an easy read yet full of impact and should change the way you look at visitors to your services. It is not a professional type book, but rather written from the heart. It tends to be a bit redundant and repititious. But most of the things repeated are things that the average church member needs to take to heart. The points made are real and need to be taken to heart if we want to reach a hurting world for Christ.
