Customer Reviews

David C. Gross, former editor of The Jewish Week, is author of the English-Hebrew/Hebrew-English Conversational Dictionary and many other books on Jewish topics also published by Hippocrene Books.

Great resource for beginners. Easy to use, far less complicated than another I purchased because it doesn't require good working knowledge of Yiddish/Hebrew characters or specific grammatical constructs . Of course it is less comprehensive but that makes it also more useful as a starter tool.

A dictionary is not a dictionary if it is missing words like "her" and "easy" and "wonderful" and "story" and .... I could list and list and list. And that in a nutshell is why I gave this dictionary one star - or - hate it.

Not that extensive but interesting to read

It is very good if your looking for Romanized translations of Yiddish. I didn't realize that it wouldn't also have the Hebrew letter translations, so that was my fault, not the fault of this book.

Dont know because I dont see any change

Good condition, good price, received promptly - thank you !

Not as complete as I would have liked.

A little small in the print department but, much cheaper than most Yiddish dictionaries.
