Customer Reviews

Jeff Lowman was born in Washington, D.C. and has kayaked extensively. He lives in Maryland with his wife.

Well done. Good details on 50 places to kayak in Maryland. Includes maps, pictures and information about put-in/take-out spots. Very informative.

Great love kayaking

i actually met the author of this while kayaking Tuckahoe Creek, here on the eastern shore... him and his wife came paddling up and he gave me a business card type thing with this book on it.... year and a half later i finally got his book.... i love it... lots of good excursions described... if you are into kayaking or canoeing around here do yourself a favor and just get it.... you only have to buy once and you'll have it forever... sidenote: MARYLAND IS THE BEST STATE... just so you know... mountains, rolling foothills, ocean, bay, creeks, rivers, and gorgeous countrysides....

I would be really cautious relying on a kayaking book from one not wearing a lifevest. It would be like having a fire and the first fireman on the scene has a cigarette hanging out of his mouth.....
