Amazing instruction book on learning the art of cantillation! It is so well laid out, taught and includes the audio CDs. Very helpful, and I would highly recommend it!Good quality, good price.-Rivka Edery, M.S.W., L.C.S.W. I love the step by step guidance in learning the tropes. I love that they include both sound files and printed music files. I love that the index has two sections for grouping tropes: one by family and one by pause status. I use both of these a great deal and am so glad they are separate items. A huge improvement in volume two is that the tracks that are matched to the printed music have the music line numbers beside them. This saves both me and my students a huge amount of time. I had to do do that myself for volume one. The one thing that I still long for is larger print for the music sheets. They are very hard to read. My bar/bat mitzvah students don't seem to have any trouble with them, but my adult students and I do.

Both Volume 1 (Torah cantillation) and Volume 2 (haftorah cantillation) are simply outstanding primers for Ashkanazi chanting. The two volumes and their included CD's of actual "trope" chanting are a must-have for the new Bar Mitzvah student and, most especially, for the very old Bar Mitzvah candidate (me). Without both volumes, I would have been hopeless for performing an Orthodox Bar Mitzvah half a century after I should have done it the first time. Profound thanks to the publisher and to the authors. Simply wonderful.

Excellent resource for learning cantillation for Haftarah and Megillot. I used this book with great devotion and learned my cantillation well.

When it comes to haftarah trope how-tos, there seems to be a lot of material focused around the reluctant twelve-year-old trying to learn this stuff for the first time or the experienced chanter looking for a quick refresher, without much in between. This book is that "in between"-- it's ideal for somebody like me, the "interested beginner" who is willing to put in some time to learn the trope properly and wants to learn a little bit of how and why along the way. There are lots of practice exercises along the way to learn new tropes, reinforce the old melodies, and gain confidence in reading and chanting. Not to mention the voices on the CD are beautiful. One note: there are many trope "standards" and this book only teaches you one kind of standard- that standard being Binder/Avery, which I understand is common to many Reform congregations and used on my Pocket Trope ipad app. Not all trope sources will be using the same melodies, and the melody you may want to learn may be a different one altogether!

Excelent product and seller.

The book came in a timely fashion and was in just the condition stated when offered.

I received this book from , but did not receive the CD. If you don't notice this within the first 30 days, you cannot return it or exchange it for one that includes the CD - they will not correct the order.I purchased vol 1 and vol 2, and I did not notice before the 30 days was up as I was working first with volume 1!Great book, just make sure you receive the CD in the book!!!
