Customer Reviews

I have never been to Italy , but after reading this book I want to go there even more than I did before reading the book . I am of Italian descent and I've always wanted to visit ,unfortunately I have not had a chance yet . I realize when I read this book that there's so much I do not know about Italy , I found this very interesting I didn't realize so many famous paintings and sculptures were in the Florence area . This is presented as a travel guide, I read it because of my interest in Italy and it did not disappoint . I can feel myself drooling as it explained the foods of different restaurants to try . The pictures were amazing they really capture the beauty of Italy . It was also nice to learn about some of the smaller towns on the outskirts of Florence and Tuscany there's so much information to be had in this book I would recommend it to anyone traveling to Italy or having an interest in Italy . This book has set off my desire to learn more and I will probably be purchasing more Wonderlust pocket guides . I received this book free in exchange for my honest opinion and review

This is a well written guide to travel in the area of Florence, Italy. It is quite descriptive and gives a lot of great suggestions as to places to eat and places for entertainment and travel. There are tips given which might familiarize one with the traditions and practices of the area, and the colorful wording and descriptions of the natural scenery make the natural beauty and appeal even greater to the reader. I would recommend this book to anyone who is going to travel in the area of Florence, Italy. This travel guide was made available to me for free in exchange for a nonbiased review.

i found this book a complete waste of money. i ordered the rick steven's book for rome and found it far superior. i was extremely disappointed in this book. it was very elementary and did not provide much detail at all. i've already dropped it off at half price books.

This guide is easy and informative to flip through while drinking coffee or watching television. I really loved all the pictures provided. I have always wanted to visit Italy, and this guide make me wants to go there even more. If I ever visit, I know the places in Florence and Tuscany I have to make it a point to travel to. I liked learning about some of the area's history and pop culture references, I would really love to visit one day! This book was provided to me in return for my unbiased opinion.

I have been planning a trip to Florence and found this book very helpful. This book introduced the most popular places you should go and very easy to follow. It saved me a lot of time to plan the trip.

charmingly thorough. I'm a huge travel bug and couldn't resist comparing my travels with this guide - extremely thorough and awesome. Very helpful and pretty much hits all the sights you'd want to see in Florence and Tuscany. And the views in Italy! amazing. Get this book so you can go there asap.

The concise book has more information than you needed to fully enjoy the historic and romantic city. From itinerary planner, highlights of major sights to various traveling tips (timing, VISA, transportation, food & drink), not only it's informational but also a fun read!

Although this is designed to be a pocket travel guide, it is a little bit too large to fit in a pocket. I would have liked a little more detail. Therefore I can't really recommend it
