Castaways: Just Hope Journal #1 (Sex, Submission & Magic)

Synopsis

Excerpt from the Just Hope Journal: "Day 45, I never thought that being stranded on a deserted island could be the best thing that ever happened to me. But somehow, it has become my own personal paradise. I was worried I would get bored, but every day I still wake up excited. And horny. The real question is, do I ever want us to be found?"

When Jake's cruise ship is wrecked by a freak storm, he is stranded on a deserted island with only the other members of his life raft to keep him company: the captain of the ship and some of the most gorgeous women he's ever seen. Jake's only pastime is writing in an old, ragged journal he found floating in the wreckage, but somehow the things he writes about keep on happening. After weeks of haughty and dismissive treatment from the women of the island, Jake decides to take matters into his own hands. Wouldn't you?

Customer Reviews

Good story, well written, and hot, though a little too short. Jake finds himself marooned on a tropical isle with several (I guess four) attractive young women. Things aren't going too well for Jake until he finds a magical object that allows him to change reality. This installment ends with the rescue of the castaways and the author's promise to continue Jake's story in Castaways Returned. Which I hope will be available soon. There is only one sexual encounter (or maybe one and a half) in Castaways. A lot more could have been done to flesh out the story, not just with sex, but with more character development, description of the island, etc. Forty or fifty pages would be a more reasonable length for one of these chapters. I hope the author will take this hint and give us more in the next installment. I got the book through Kindle Unlimited, but wouldn't be happy if I paid $2.99 for a 25 page book.
