Leanne Payne was founder and president of Pastoral Care Ministries and the author of many articles and books, including Real Presence, Restoring the Christian Soul, and Listening Prayer.

This book is written and argued very well. Leanne Payne starts with the people of God's greatest distinctive i.e. His presence among His people, as especially seen in their union to Christ, and unfolds the massive benefits He makes available to them through His presence among them. She sets forward God's goodness in Christ and the necessity of seeing Christ's life-giving presence realized in and for us. Leanne Payne sets these insights out by drawing on scripture, church history, and her own personal growth in experiencing and drawing on the presence of Christ for life and ministry. The chapters on Jungian psychology and imagery are excellent but dense. These chapters were the slowest going but, I believe they are very important for those involved in counseling and prayer ministry and have much value for any believer seriously determined to set their faith on a solid foundation.

This book resonates in my soul EVERY time i read it!! I am going through it again...reading in small chunks to digest it. It is truth, and it is practical and encourages one to realize that, if we treasure

Jesus in our heart, we can invite His presence into a situation of ministering to someone in pain and hurt and have Him change their lives! Sometime down the road I am going to read this book with a friend of mine who lives in another state. We talk on the phone on Monday a.m.'s and discuss our current book. This will be "meat" for us, but I cannot over-praise it as a book of truth for those especially whom God has called to the healing ministry or have the gift of mercy.

This is an absolutely great book. I found this book to be very informative on the subject matter of bringing inner healing to those who have ungodly beliefs about themselves. Leanne Payne is an absolute treasure!-Michael Norton
A Field Guide to Spiritual Warfare:power to PULL the IMPOSSIBLE

Another great book for the long journey on this lonely planet..

This book has brought my faith to a new level and given me a much better understanding of healing prayer.

Leanne Payne does a superb job of describing how a closer relationship with Christ can heal us. She brings what the New Testament say about Jesus' ministry on earth of healing and deliverance to the here and now. By using her own experience to show how God healed her and how He heals others she has worked with. This book is invaluable to any Christian or non-Christian who really wants to know the key to how people can be healed.

love this book! Leanne Payne gives easy to read, very in depth understanding of the healing presence of the Lord.

Leanne is way out there ahead of all the inner healing ministries and methodologies. She writes with academic insight as does C.S Lewis. She carries on from where Agnes Sanford left off. Her strength is in alignment of her rational faculties with her intuitive faculty. So the result is a highly charged spirituality as she speaks from a place of Being, fully. She understands the import of looking upward and outward to our transcendent God and being ingodded as we are filled with His Spirit as we abide in Him. For a faithfilled experience and renewal she's without parallel, and an author still living and writing, and totally relevant for today's world. Even though this book was written a few years ago, the relevance is perspicacious. She's also the best author I've read on her analysis of

C.S.Lewis. Also the best analysis on Carl Jung. Nothing misses her depth of discernment. The sequel to this book is Restoring the Christian Soul, and also a must read.
