Snowboarding With Courage

Synopsis

Levi's life has always been traveling down roads of the unknown. Moving to a small town in the mountains was difficult and lonely, but meeting his new friend Noah and going to the dance with the prettiest girl in the school, made things a whole lot easier. His friendship with Noah and his passion for snowboarding pulls him through to experience the other side of what life can be. As time passes, and wounds begin to heal, he finds himself facing the unknown once again. This time, his own life, and the life of Noah hangs in the balance. Through the difficulty he discovers the strength and courage that he really always had.

Customer Reviews

Cristy Landry shares her home with the wild life of the Rocky Mountains in Colorado. She lives with her husband and two teen children. Her adult children live in nearby states. Being diagnosed with multiple sclerosis seemed at first like a road block in life. She now knows it was merely a detour reigniting her passion for writing. Having two aspiring snowboarding Olympian athletes in her family has given her inspiration in creating Snowboarding with Courage.
