Thanks

All the "I Can Read" books are a wonderful resource for young eager minds. When a child begins to read, their little minds open up to many possibilities. Bible stories come to life! We have probably all of the I Can Read bible stories in our library. Kids also love the Pinkalicious series as well.

Purchased for the church library

I love these little Bible Stories. Teaching the Bible and character is so important. These little books are great.

I have a grandson named Joesph he loves this book these are such useful books for tykes.....we understood that there would be a cd in it also.....•

When your brother or sister are mean to you can still forgive. I brought the I Can Read Books for our students so they can read the Bible stories and remember them. This book is AR reading level 1-2. Great for students in a Christian school.

The Bible story about Joseph reminds us of how God wants us to love each other, even our enemies. The authors of this book bring across the biblical message in an excellent way. Young first time readers will love this book.

Plan to take my grandson to see this show in the spring and wanted an easy-to-read storybook for him so that he would understand the story without hearing a sermon. This book met that need perfectly!
