Rob Valois is the author of the original Doctor Who Mad Libs and a longtime fan of the series.

My children are all big fans of Doctor Who. The Mad Libs were great, Doctor Who themed and in nice pad. Not only was it fun, but the kids unknowingly are getting a grammar lesson each time they do a Mad Lib - adjective, adverb, noun, verb...

Bought for the daughters of a friend (8, 10, and 12). They are huge Dr. Who fans and it worked perfectly with the 3 of them to have one ask for the needed word, one to write them down, and one to read the finished stories. When the Daleks gave a war cry of "Wow!" they all burst out laughing and scolded my fiance for not being creative enough.

My 14 year old Whovian loves this!

23 enjoyable Doctor Who Mad Libs stories. Use a pencil, so you can reuse the stories. Overall good for the price (discounted). Wish the quality of the paper was better though.

We homeschool. I use Mad Libs for grammar practice. Why diagram when you can laugh?This is a stocking stuffer for my eight year old son. It will be a huge hit!
