Customer Reviews

Excellent ! Who can entertain the reader better than renown proven writers. Each style brings a different perspective to the topic of early man as known in the writer's time.

Really enjoyed all three novels. All written with a different spin on prehistory. All three were filled with wonderful adventures. I highly recommend this book.

A very good read! These guys are true writers who know how to tell a tale that keeps folks interested - and often captivated! At least, they did so with me!

OK

All three books are old sifi written before 1920. Book one (In the Morning of Time)--Starts with dino's goes to early man then to the main story. Grom the cave man is very intelligent for a cave man. He's harnesses fire discovers the bow and arrow and helps his tribe. Along with Ay-a his -mate, Brar the chief, and others you can follow their adventures. Books has Saber-teeths, cave bears, cave lions and many other pre-historic beasts. The Author's writing style reminded me a lot of my favorite childhood author "Edgar Rice Burroughs" creator of Tarzan. (5 stars) Book two (Before Adam) --The first two chapters the Author tries to explain his dreams it was way to dragged out I skimmed over them. After that the story starts. We find the dreams are actually his life or former life living in prehistoric times (3 stars) Book three (The story of Ab) The title says it all starts with Ab as a baby and goes through his life. The authors goes a little overboard with explaining the cave men's appearance and way of life but all and all not to bad of a story. (3 stars)

Of the 3 novels, through out the middle one, 1 and 3 were okay. Just a little to far back for me.

Great Read!! ONE I will read again and again!! Stories flow so smoothly. Exciting and satisfying stories.

The style of writing was vert difficult to get used to. The story content was ok, but not really interesting, I have certainly read better.
