Customer Reviews

Fernando de Haro and Omar Fuentes are award-winning architects and collaborators on the successful series Mexican Architects. They live in Mexico City.

Few books allow us to explore the vision of an artist in his own words, this book does that. It compiles an array of photographs, opinions and reflections from and about Sebastian, one of the greatest contemporary monumental sculptors of the end of the 20th. century. I happened to encounter this book on a coffee table when I was waiting at an office. It revealed to be so interesting that I felt compelled to order it immediately. It is hard to find but I am very glad I've got it!
