"'Practical advice.' Evening Standard; 'Caters for all age groups and motivational levels...provides clear and comprehensive advice on every aspect of your trip.' Australian News; 'Required reading...unlike most reference books this one should be read right through.' School Librarian Journal"

Nick Vandome has himself taken gap years on three occasions: firstly between school and university, when he worked in the UK and then in France putting up tents for a camping company; secondly when he spent a year in Australia, working in a variety of jobs ranging from fruit-picking to bar work; and finally when he spent a year travelling which included several months in Africa, Asia and Australia again.

Here you'll find info you won't ever find anywhere else.

Well written with good considerations. Is directed to UK residents.
