Customer Reviews

This little book is an old one with a shiny new cover. I've been using this book for decades to introduce Italian to beginners. It's very clearly organized; it's no nonsense. It's great as a reference. Although the colloquial Italian that travelers hear nowadays when traveling to Italy, watching TV or movies, has become less formal, literary and formal Italian hasn't changed that much since this book's first publication. It's also reasonably priced. Viva l'Essential Italian Grammar!

I like this book so well that I purchased a replacement one when my original was lost. It's not an Italian lesson book, but a very comprehensive grammar guide. It's very small and unpretentious, but covers all the necessary grammar needed for basic Italian. I read through it occasionally just as a review, but mostly use it to look up a preposition or answer a specific question. It's pretty easy to use and, for what it is, it can't be beat. What it is -- is a supplemental grammar guide. If you buy it for that purpose, you won't be disappointed.

I got the book as a gift for someone who is studying Italian and they were very happy with it.
