Lil Mama Fell In Love With A Hitta

Synopsis

After countless runs through the system, Gia, Lyrical, and Zura form a bond built around troubled pasts. Blood couldn't make these women more of a family. When they are taken in by the infamous Big Red, she provides them with the skills needed in order to survive the streets. But only Gia can see Big Red for who she really is. Will the other two continue to be blinded by Big Red's thirst for money, or will they soon see what Gia's been saying from the beginning? Bilal, Zohran, and Waseem are three powerful brothers who filled their father's big shoes, making them the kings of the streets. But real men know when it's time to bow out gracefully and hang their guns up. The only problem is that Bilal doesn't have the same vision that his brothers have. Could they convince him that the best way to survive the streets is to get in and get out, or will the streets teach Bilal a lesson he'll never forget? Find out what happens when three brothers cross paths with three beautiful sisters. Will they collide head on, or will these lil mamas fall in love with some hittas?

Customer Reviews

I definitely do not trust Inga I'm sorry Gia was naive for believing her. Although Lyrical gets on my just nerves I'm glad in the end she finally got off her high horse. I hope Lorenzo don't hurt Zura , and Big Red she's too manipulative but I know it's going to be some drama they have woken the BEAST ...

This story didn't do it for me. I only got 71% in before I quit reading. It was slow paced and not enough back story. I was hoping it picked up, but it never did for me

LOVE IIITTTTT

I enjoyed this read very much! Lyrical worked my nerves. She was entirely too judgmental. I understood that she wanted the best for her sisters, but her nonsense definitely pushed them away at times. Zura and Gia both met someone that made them happy and they both deserved it. They didn't have an easy life growing up! Lyrical didn't either and that may have had a lot to do with her ways, but she needed to let her guard down and let someone in. Wise was a good dude. I loved him and both of his brothers. They were all good men. Bilal was a little rough around the edges and a true hot head, but he most definitely had a good heart! I shocked by Lyrical at the end. I am so ready to see what is to come.

I always enjoy reading books from this author, and this one was no different. I loved the background that was given on the sisters which showcased their individual personalities. Gia is the firecracker that cares about nothing and is ride or die for Bilal. Zura was the peacemaker, who didn't want to make anyone mad. I think Zohran is good for her. Finally, their was the hood bourgeoise Lyrical. She has forgotten where she came from, but I think she's about to revert back to old ways. She and Waseem are going to be a force together. Can't wait for part 2.

A little too long for all the couples to get together but I loved the storyline. Good flow throughout with some unexpected turns. What's going to happen to zuru now? I like the relationship she shares with zo but will his situation cause issues? Love how hard gia and bilal go for each other. Can't wait to see how waseem and lyrical grow. He's fed the one she needs to put her in check. Will big red be a problem? Looking forward to part 2

I truly enjoy anything Saja Jay pens and this proves book why she's a National Best Selling

Authoress. I love the girls protective nature of each other. Lyrical irked my whole soul and judgement ways, Zura & Gia are my favs, Bilal is my new book bae. I hope someone takes Big Red and her Boy Toy down. I dont wanna spoil anything for anyone who has not read this... it's Greeeeaaaat!!!! I cant wait for part 2

This book was pretty good but I will say it wasn't Saja best work. I thought the storyline and characters were on point but it took to long to get to the point also for the brothers to have so much money why did they need the girls to piece up money? Also I think it needed more backstory but I'm sure part 2 will enlighten us more overall great book.
