A perfect easy to read book to a toddler or young elementary child. I love the short paragraph that is a summary of the scripture story. The Jesus Calling section is a personal message to the young reader from Jesus and then the short main scripture itself is easy for a young child to understand and learn. I read this to my grandson as we were Face-timing since he is hours away from us. It held his attention and he even asked me questions about the pictures.

I bought this as a gift for a baby shower. It was fantastic. We never had this one with my babies but had the Jesus Calling Storybook bible (also recommend that one). I looked through it and LOVED it and wished I had had a copy for myself/my kids. This book would probably remain age appropriate for awhile... its good for reading to babies and toddlers but then it's also great for kids learning to read themselves too!

Cute book and nicely illustrated

Gave to my great niece. So nice

My kids love this book, highly recommend it.

I absolutely love these books for children! A good place for them to start learning about JESUS....

This was given as a gift. Mother reports that recipient LOVES the book and doesn't want to put it down!

A great deal! Buy it!
