Out Of The Mouth Of The Lion (Illustrated): Or, The Church In The Catacombs

Synopsis

When Flaminius, takes his wife, Flavia, to the Colosseum to see Christians thrown to the lions, he has no idea the effect it will have. Flavia cannot forget the faith of the martyrs, and decides to convert and become a Christian. Flaminus is horrified and after trying in vain to cause her to give up her faith, requests a transfer to a more remote government post to save the family from disgrace and ruin. As he and his family travel, he sees the various responses of the Christian churches to persecution. His attitude toward the despised Christians begins to change, but will he dare forsake the gods of Rome and embrace the Lord Jesus Christ?
