Customer Reviews

My children, age 13 and 14 and I are going through this study this summer. We are really enjoying it and will be buying others. May look in to a fall bible study for my son and his classmates thinking Proverbs!

This study went beyond my expectations! I loved that it went through the whole book of James verse by verse but broke it down in small enough pieces that our 9 yr old was able to follow along & get the discussion points. I highly recommend this study to any family looking for a study that will actually get you into the Word, get you talking and applying the truth!

I use this book as a devotion for my boys (7 and 10) a few times a week before school and we really enjoy it! It gives them questions to contemplate and is just the right length to keep their interest and attention.

Good meat for our homeschool Bible study, the study is appropriate for junior high age kids, but the activities are more elementary.

We love this entire series. We started with Proverbs and it's a great study and conversation piece with our daughter. I highly encourage all Christian parents to take the time to use this material to get deeper in the word with their children. Treasure into eternity.

We are going through this book with our 8 year old boy. LOVE how it asks the questions that really make us "dig" in. Our young teen and our tween boy would also enjoy this book.

As a homeschooling mama this book has been such a blessing!! Good sound Biblical teaching presented in a way that my children can understand!! I will be ordering the next study!!

I love this book series, great kids' bible study for home use. I have bought all other books in the series too, waiting for more to be published. I highly recommend it.
